The screenshot displays a web application interface for managing news. A 'Create New' modal is open in the center, allowing users to add new news items. The modal contains the following fields:

- Title: A text input field.
- Description: A large text area for entering the news content.
- News Date: A date picker with the format 'mm/dd/yyyy'.
- Department: A dropdown menu with the option '--select--'.

At the bottom of the modal are 'Submit' and 'Close' buttons. The background interface includes a sidebar with navigation links such as 'Website Setup', 'Our Management', 'BOT', 'Faculties', 'Slides', 'Gallery', 'Events', 'News' (highlighted), 'Department Page Setup', 'Course Category', 'Course', 'Course Student List', and 'Department with Exam structure'. The main content area shows a 'News' section with a 'Data Table' and a list of news items, each with an 'Edit' and 'Delete' button.
